

Sir Syed Ahmad Khan, a prominent social reformer, educationist, and the founder of the Aligarh Movement in India. In celebration of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan's legacy and contributions to education and social reform, an essay competition and Speech Competition on the topic “Sir Syed Ahmad Khan: A Social Reformer” was organized by Dept. of Medieval History, Hamidia Girls’ Degree College, Prayagraj. On October 17, 2024, Room no. 9 at 11:00 am onwards. The event aimed to encourage students to explore Sir Syed's vision and its relevance in contemporary society.

In Essay writing competition 37 students participated and in Speech Competition 12 students participated. In Essay writing competition, Insha Parvez (B.A.1) stood first position, Mahak Panday (B.A.1) second position (B.A. I) and Shifa (B.A.1) stood third position.

The competition was coordinated and judged by the Teaching Faculty of Medieval History and Economics Department – Dr. Nuzat Fatima, Dr. Gulshan Akhtar and Dr. Tabassum Nigar.

In Speech Competition Insha Parvez got first prize (B.A. I Year), Mahak Panday got second prize (B.A. I), Insha Parween got third prize (B.A.1 year), and Aameen Ashraf got consolation prize .

