

National Education Day is celebrated annually in India on 11 November to commemorate the birth anniversary Of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, the country's first education minister. Maulana Azad played a pivotal role in shaping India's education system establishing institution like the university Grant Commission (UGC) and the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT). His vision for education focused on promoting inclusivity, diversity and social cohesion.

This day honors his contributions to the Indian Education System and emphasize the Importance of education in national development, and the Department of Medieval History, Hamidia Girls' Degree College, Prayagraj, organized an Quiz competition on "Contribution of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad in the National Education" On November 11, 2024, Room no. 9 at 1:00 pm onwards. The quiz competition honored Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's educational vision, fostering teamwork, critical thinking and knowledge sharing. Recommendations for future improvements include expanding participant diversity and incorporating innovative question formats.

The competition witnessed enthusiastic participation, with over 36 students from various departments showcasing their general awareness. Participants showcased exceptional knowledge in history, science, literature, current affairs and education. And also his vision for education focused on promoting inclusivity, diversity and social cohesion.

The competition was coordinated and judged by the Teaching Faculty of Medieval History Department – Dr. Nuzhat Fatima(Assistant Professor)and Dr. Tabassum Nigar(Guest Lecturer).In Quiz competition, Tasmiya Fatima (B.A. 3rd year) got First position, Aqamsha Aslam (B.A. 3rd year) got Second position and Aameen Ashraf B. A (2nd year) and Aarifa Arif Ansari B.A. (1st year) got Third position, Alisha Quraishi and Insha Parveen B.A (1st year) got consolation.